

[Off]Online Marketplace

Specifications

Using HTML, CSS, JS, jQuery & localStorage

- Make an offline version of a marketplace where users can create new products for the marketplace and also add existing products to their shopping cart.
- Products in the marketplace, and products in shopping cart should be stored and retrieved from localStorage.
- Items in the shopping cart can be modified (item can be removed or quantity changed per item)

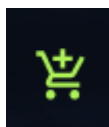

All Products View - Home Page

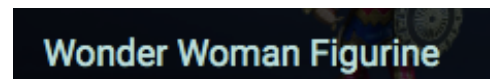

Shows total number of items in cart, clicking on it shows shopping cart view

Shows 'New product form view'

Adds product to cart and shows updated cart view

Shows single product view

New Product Form View

Online Marketplace CART

New Product

Name

Description

Photo URL

Quantity

Price

SUBMIT

CANCEL

Create product

- On submit, new product is created with these form details and added to marketplace
- Name, description, and photo url are texts
- Photo url value should be a complete http url that ends in .jpg or .png
- Quantity and price are numbers

Single Product View

Online Marketplace CART

Darth Vader Figurine

In Stock

Darth Vader is a powerful Sith Lord dedicated to crushing the Jedi and seizing control of the galaxy. This detailed 12-inch figure looks just like the villain of the Star Wars saga. He comes armed with his own Light saber and he's awesome whether you're sending him into battle or standing him up in your collection.

$ 25

Adds product to cart and shows updated cart view

Shopping Cart View with Items

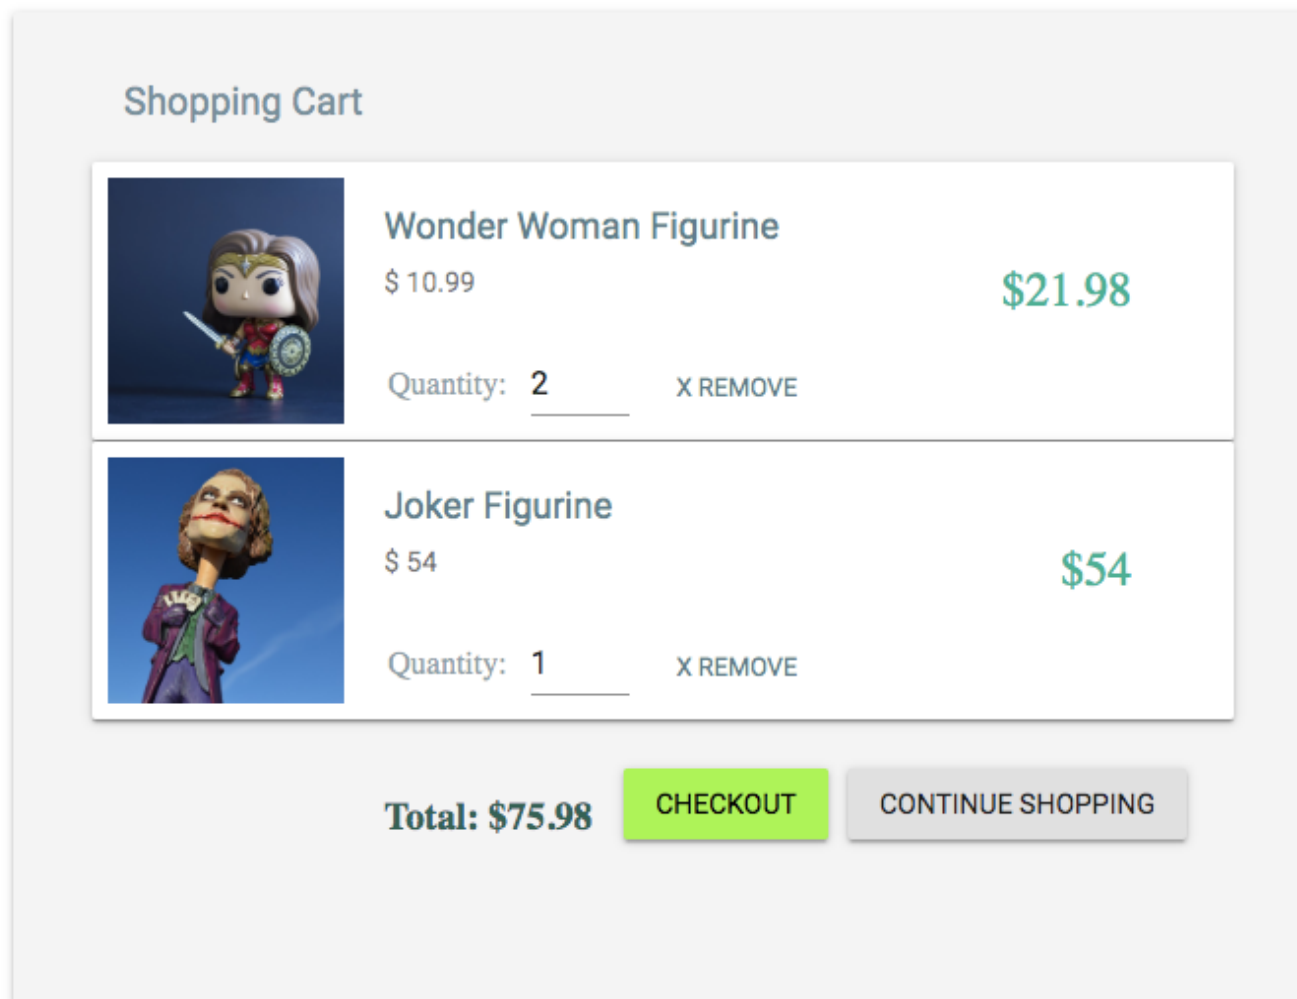

User can modify cart items:

- Change quantity of each item
 - Changing quantity should update total
- Remove an item from cart
 - Removing all items will show empty cart view

Button behavior:

- Continue shopping button shows all products view and hides cart
- Checkout button (no functionality)

Empty Cart View

Online Marketplace

CART

Shopping Cart

No items added to your cart.